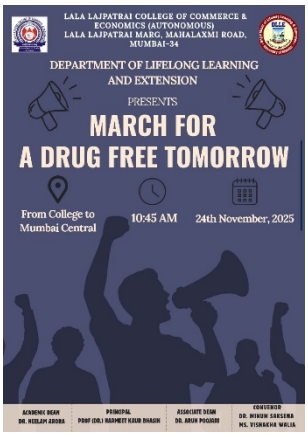
DRUG DE-ADDICTION



Date: 24th November, 2025
No. of Participation: 68

Objective:

The objective of the programme was to create awareness about drug addiction, promote a healthy lifestyle, and encourage students to work towards a drug-free society.

Description:

The programme included a Poster Making Competition where students created awareness-based posters on the harmful effects of addiction. This was followed by an Awareness Rally conducted in and around the campus as well as on nearby roads, where students interacted with the public and spread anti-drug messages. Additionally, a week-long Donation Drive was organized in which students anonymously wrote down addictions or unhealthy habits they wished to overcome and deposited the chits into a donation box, symbolizing their commitment to positive change.

Outcome:

The programme successfully sensitized students and the public about the dangers of addiction and encouraged healthier lifestyle choices. The initiative promoted creativity, self-awareness, and social responsibility, supporting the vision of a drug-free society.

AIDS AWARENESS - BRAINBUZZ QUIZ

Date: 1ST December, 2025
No. of Participants: 36

Objective:
To spread awareness about AIDS through an engaging quiz activity and encourage students to learn important health-related information in an interactive format.

Description:
The BrainBuzz Quiz Game organized in collaboration with Mental Well-Being Club, as part of an AIDS awareness initiative. The activity was conducted in two parts. In the first part, students participated in teams of three. The quiz included a mix of fact-based questions, true-or-false statements, and scenario-based questions that tested students' understanding of HIV/AIDS, myths vs. facts, modes of transmission, and preventive measures. These questions were designed to promote awareness, correct misconceptions, and encourage informed decision-making. In the second part, students watched an informative documentary on HIV/AIDS, which provided real-life insights, emotional narratives, and scientific explanations. This helped reinforce the importance of empathy, awareness, and responsible behaviour in society.

Outcome:
The quiz successfully increased awareness about AIDS while promoting teamwork and healthy competition. Participants gained valuable knowledge, and the winners were awarded certificates for their performance.

VOTING APPEAL FOR THE BMC ELECTIONS

Date: 7th & 8th January, 2026
No of participants: 8

Objective:

Reel or Video Making Competition on the topic of 'Cast Your Vote / Vote Appeal' was organised to spread awareness about the importance of voting and active civic participation among students and the general public. The initiative aimed to help students understand their democratic rights and responsibilities while encouraging them to communicate this message effectively using creative digital platforms.

Description:

The activity was organized in collaboration with Electoral Literacy Club. Students created short reels and videos delivering a strong vote appeal message. Participants adopted various creative approaches. A few students also explored innovative methods by using animation and AI-generated visuals, making the content more engaging and contemporary. These reels and videos were designed to be shared on digital and social media platforms, allowing the message to reach beyond the student community.

Outcome:

The activity successfully achieved its objective by spreading awareness about the importance of voting among students as well as a wider audience. Through the creation and circulation of reels and videos, participants were able to educate others on civic responsibility while reinforcing their own understanding of democratic participation. The creative and digital nature of the submissions helped make the message accessible and impactful, thereby strengthening awareness, social responsibility, and overall student development.

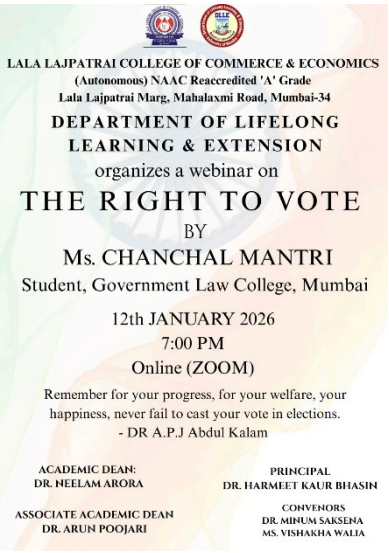
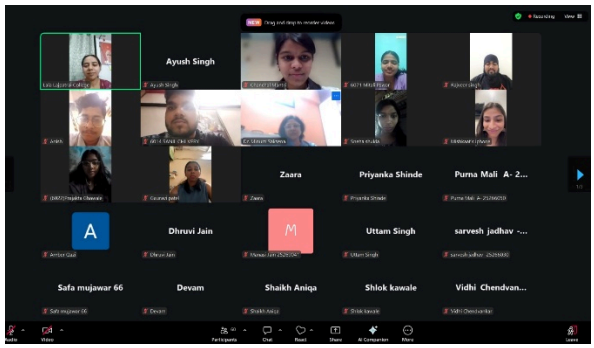
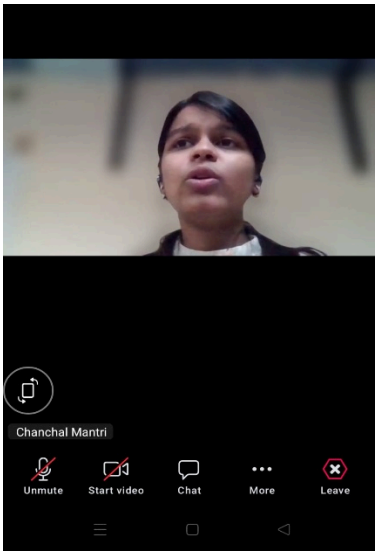
WEBINAR ON RIGHT TO VOTE







Date: 12th January, 2026
No of participants: 42
Resource Person : Ms. Chanchal Mantri

Objective:

The objective of this webinar was to sensitize students on the legal and social significance of the right to vote. It aimed to provide a clear understanding of Article 326 of the Constitution and the Representation of the People Act. The session sought to transform students into informed citizens who can navigate the electoral process and encourage voter participation within their communities.

Description:

The webinar was organized in collaboration with the ELC. Ms. Chanchal Mantri provided an engaging overview of the Indian electoral framework, focusing on how the right to vote serves as a foundation for social justice. She explained the technicalities of voter registration, the importance of the EPIC (Voter ID) card, and the role of the Election Commission in conducting fair polls. The discussion also addressed the power of the youth vote and the legal significance of NOTA. By relating legal provisions to everyday civic responsibilities, Ms. Mantri highlighted how students can act as intermediaries to bridge the gap between law and the common citizen.

Output:

The seminar resulted in increased constitutional awareness among the students, equipping them with the knowledge to lead voter awareness campaigns. Participants gained a practical understanding and their perception was shifted from passive observers to active participants in the democratic process. The session helped students in turning their academic learning into a meaningful social extension activity for the community.
