Name of the event: Seminar on CFA, ACCA, CMA

Date: 14th August, 2024

No. of Participants: 72

Objective:

The seminar will provide insights into three professional certifications:

1. CMA: Recognized globally, the CMA is the most sought-after accounting and finance certification by companies and recruiters worldwide.
2. CPA: A prestigious credential that opens doors to various accounting and auditing roles, enhancing career prospects in the financial sector.
3. CFA: Considered the gold standard for financial analysts, the CFA program is recognized globally and offers comprehensive knowledge in investment management.

Brief Report of the Event:

Our esteemed President, Mr. Umang Kapoor, welcomed the speakers and introduced the session to the audience. The speakers, experts in the field of higher education and professional training, engaged the students with an interactive Q&A segment focused on pursuing master's degrees in India and abroad.

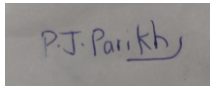

This discussion provided valuable insights for students enrolled in professional courses, sparking interest in global opportunities.

Mr. Kapoor further guided the attendees through a detailed introduction to courses like CMA, CPA, and CFA, emphasizing their growing importance in shaping future careers. The speakers also presented their company, which specializes in preparing students for MBA and other professional courses.

Their services extend to soft skills training, including communication development, resume building, and interview preparation, ensuring students are well-equipped for future success.

Outcome:

The seminar was highly beneficial for students across all years, with a significant number of first-year, second year, and third-year students participating. The session proved to be both impactful and eye-opening, providing valuable insights. Many students expressed that it helped them gain a deeper understanding of the subject and sparked a genuine interest in pursuing related courses. The overwhelming feedback highlights the seminar's role in enhancing their academic journey and professional growth.
